

Just call him Poppi

University Physician Ellis Ingram, MD, is well known among his colleagues for his achievements in pathology.

Also, he has received special recognition from the President of the United States for his mentorship of minority students.

But at home, he's proud to be known as Poppi, a mentor at Granny's House ... a center for children in inner city Columbia. Granny's House was founded by Dr. Ingram's wife, Pamela, as a home-away-from-home and a place kid's potential is recognized and nurtured.

"Columbia is a good place to raise a family," Dr. Ingram says. "I love the people here. I plan on being involved forever."
