Publications

  *Selected for presentation at the 42nd VEITH symposium with presentations by “world renowned vascular specialists with emphasis on the latest advances, changing concepts in diagnosis and management, pressing controversies and new techniques”.
  *Selected for presentation at the 41st VEITH symposium with presentations by “world renowned vascular specialists with emphasis on the latest advances, changing concepts in diagnosis and management, pressing controversies and new techniques”.
- Wilson JE, Galiñanes EL, Hu P, Dombrovskiy VY, Vogel TR. Routine revascularization is unnecessary in the majority of patients requiring zone II coverage during thoracic endovascular aortic repair: A longitudinal outcomes

